Help

The Silver Mine exists to help people get into film photography. Members of the group will help you with each step of the process - shooting, developing, choosing the photo to exhibit, scanning, framing - anything you need, just ask within the Unsensored09 flickr group. Find it at flickr.com/groups/Unsensored09

We plan to put together an Unsensored09 photo book as we did last year; this will be a bound colour book put together using an online book publisher such as blurb.com.

We would like everyone exhibiting to be involved. Each participant will have the opportunity to order copies of the book at a reduced price. Additional copies can be purchased online.
